

Announcing Open MarcoPolo Field Trainer Workshops

May 16 and June 11

To be held at the Department of Education's Ida Hill Training Center
18th Floor, Monroe Building, in Richmond
9:30 am – 3:30 pm

If you are interested in becoming a Field Trainer for the MarcoPolo project, you are invited to attend any one of the above listed training sessions. The training focuses on learning how to use the content from the MarcoPolo Web site (<http://www.marcopolo-education.org>) to train your colleagues on effective use of the Internet in their classrooms.

The MarcoPolo project is a non-profit endeavor that involves partnering between leading education organizations around the country. Each partner in the project is committed to providing free access to high-quality, commercial-free teaching and learning materials through the Internet. All lesson plans and activities are standards-based.

If you would like more information about the project, or would like to sign up for the training session, please contact Jean Weller, MarcoPolo State Administrator, jweller@mail.vak12ed.edu. DEADLINE is one week prior to the date you wish to attend.
